

AUG 6 1981

Body of woman found on beach identified

HAYWARD — The body of a woman washed ashore Sunday night near the San Mateo Bridge toll plaza has been identified as Emma Marie Garcia, a 23-year-old transient who had lived at various addresses here, according to Hayward police.

Her body, bound and weighted, was discovered at 7:30 p.m. Sunday by a passing motorist.

She was wearing a turquoise tank top and shorts.

SEP 1 1981

Slaying clues sought

HAYWARD — Police are asking for information about the killing of Emma Marie Garcia

Garcia, 23, was last seen July 26 at a Hayward BART station. On Aug. 1, her body washed ashore near the Hayward-San Mateo Bridge toll plaza.

The victim was 5 feet 2, 132 pounds, black hair, brown eyes and of Hispanic origin.

She was last seen wearing blue designer jeans, a blue short-sleeve top and a horizontally striped velour jacket.

Hayward police seek clues in slaying of Hispanic woman

HAYWARD — Police are seeking information about the murder of Emma Marie Garcia.

Garcia, 23, was last seen July 26 at a Hayward BART station. On Aug. 1, her body washed ashore near the San Mateo Bridge toll plaza.

DVP?
The victim was 5 feet 2 inches tall, 132 pounds, black hair, brown eyes and of Hispanic origin.

She was last seen wearing blue designer jeans, a blue short-sleeve top, and a horizontally striped velour jacket.